

Foundations: Summer 2025 Quarter traces God's story from the very beginning through His covenant relationship with His people. Students will discover God's character, His love for humanity, and His faithfulness through the patriarchs, exodus, and early history of Israel.

Each ready-to-teach lesson is perfectly timed for the season and designed to engage any class size. Whether you're teaching a few kids or a full room, the activities adapt seamlessly for large and small groups. Plus, the simple teacher guides make preparation effortless—no complicated prep, just powerful lessons that bring the Bible to life.

Key Themes: From Creation to Covenant – God's Plan Unfolds

- God as Creator, Provider, and Promise-Keeper
- The importance of faith, obedience, and trusting God's timing
- God's faithfulness even when His people are unfaithful
- The foundation of God's covenant love and His plan for redemption

This quarter helps students learn who God is and how He works with people. Students will see that God has always had a plan and that He keeps His promises through real stories with real people. This prepares them to understand how God stayed faithful to His people throughout history and how He showed His greatest love by sending Jesus.
